Wage & Hour, Employment Standards Regulations

with

Tralene Putman, Administrator of the Employment Standards Unit, DLLR.

The Maryland Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation (DLLR) safeguards and protects Maryland's work environments and encourages improvements in workplace safety and health. The Division of Labor and Industry's Employment Standards Service (ESS) unit handles employment issues, including enforcement of laws concerning wages and time off.

Tralene Putman has over 15 years of Labor Law experience, and oversees the Division of Labor and Industry, ESS. Her experience includes enforcement in the areas of wage and hour, wage payment and collection, employment of minors, flexible leave and other related laws. She'll give an overview of wage and hour laws, and how business should respond to complaints.
